

Charge credits and review your payment history

1. If you want to run jobs with the AppCenter, you need to refill your credit balance. The charged credits are only valid for the software you had purchased it for.

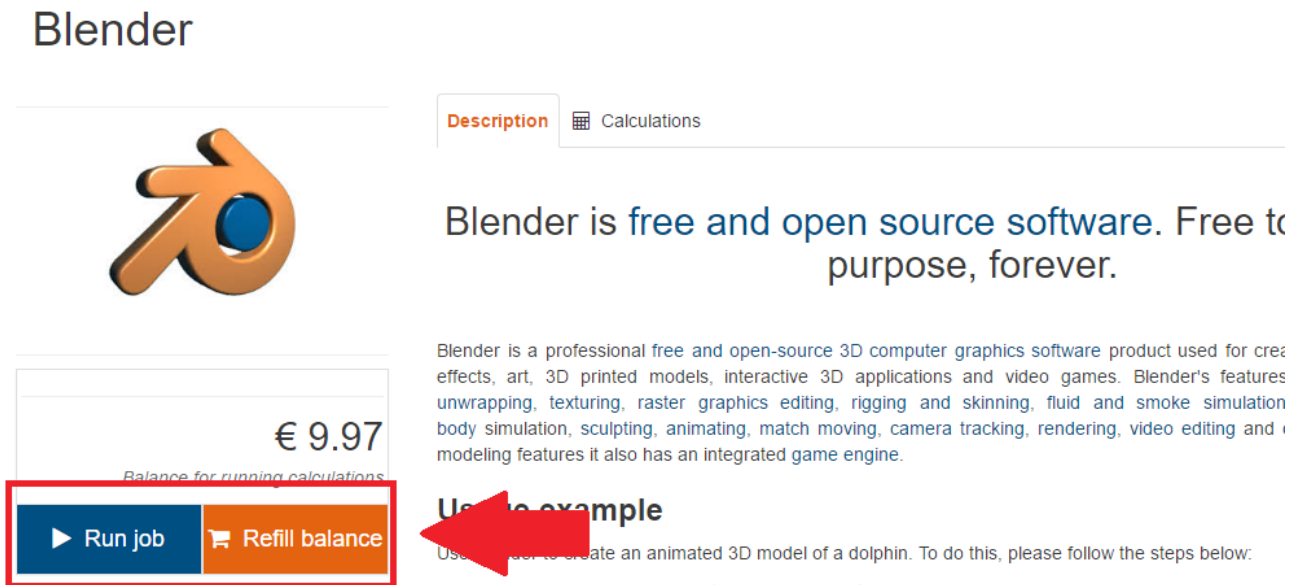

2. First you need to browse to the application of your choice (Fig.1).

(Fig. 1: Location of the refill balance button)

3. If the application needs credits to run the given jobs, there will be an orange button called „refill balance“ next to the blue „run job“ button on the left side.

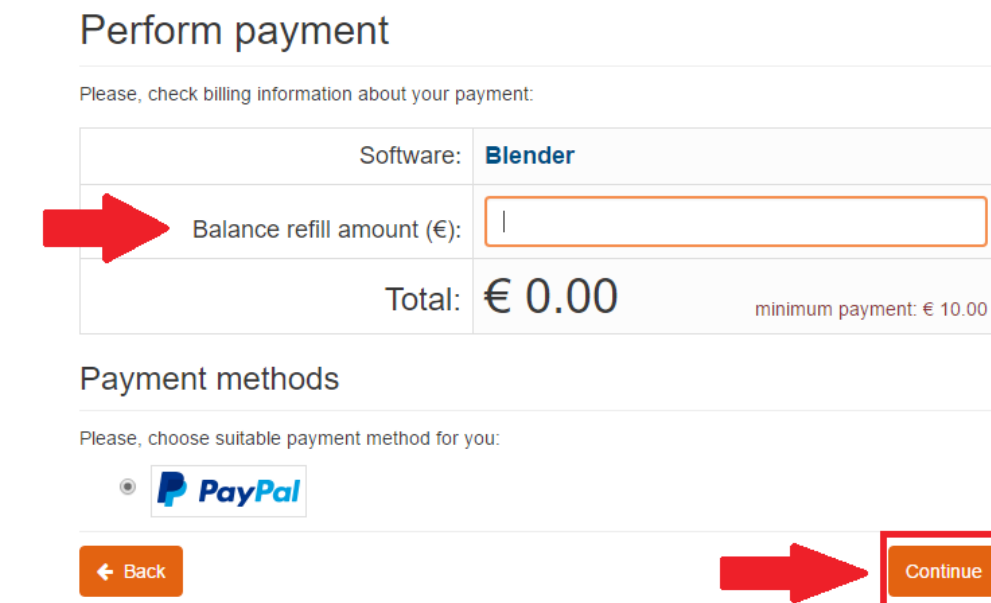

4. Click on the „refill balance“ button (Fig. 2) to navigate to a new window. You can see the choosed software and a field to specify the amount of credits you want to buy for the software.

The screenshot shows the Blender software page. On the left, there is a Blender logo and a balance display showing € 9.97. Below the balance, there are two buttons: 'Run job' and 'Refill balance'. The 'Refill balance' button is highlighted with a red box, and a red arrow points to it from the right. On the right side, there is a 'Description' tab and a 'Calculations' tab. Below the tabs, there is a heading 'Blender is free and open source software. Free to use for any purpose, forever.' and a paragraph of text describing Blender. Below the text, there is a heading 'Usage example' and a paragraph of text.

(Fig. 2: Location of the run job button)

5. Specify the amount of credits you want to buy. Sometimes the AppCenter specifies a minimum of credits that has to be bought (Fig. 3).

The screenshot shows the 'Perform payment' form. At the top, there is a heading 'Perform payment' and a sub-heading 'Please, check billing information about your payment:'. Below this, there is a table with the following content:

Software:	Blender
Balance refill amount (€):	<input type="text"/>
Total:	€ 0.00
	minimum payment: € 10.00

Below the table, there is a heading 'Payment methods' and a sub-heading 'Please, choose suitable payment method for you:'. Below this, there is a radio button and the PayPal logo. At the bottom, there are two buttons: 'Back' and 'Continue'. The 'Continue' button is highlighted with a red box, and a red arrow points to it from the left.
